

Władysław Drapiewski I Private Upper Secondary Art School in Płock

Płock, September 18, 2017

To Art Schools Headmasters/Headmistresses from the Czech Republic, Hungary, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Poland, the Slovak Republic and Ukraine

Dear Sirs!

On behalf of the organizers, I cordially invite all students interested in drawing, painting or graphic to participate in the 6th International Art Competition „Remember the Gardens. But there came...”. The competition’s aim is to present and promote artistically talented young people from art schools in Central Europe.

The International Art Competition „Remember the Gardens. But there came... ” is held under the patronage of:

- His Excellency the Minister of Culture and National Heritage of the Republic of Poland – Piotr Gliński
- His Excellency the Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania in Poland – Šarūnas Adomavičius
- His Excellency the Ambassador of the Czech Republic in Poland – Jakub Karfík
- His Excellency the Ambassador of the Slovak Republic in Poland – Dušan Krištofik
- Her Excellency the Ambassador of Hungary in Poland – Orsolya Zsuzsanna Kovács

The 6th International Art Competition „Remember the Gardens. But there came... ” is organized by the Władysław Drapiewski I Private Upper Secondary Art School in Płock in cooperation with The Department of Landscape Architecture, Faculty of Horticulture, Biotechnology and Landscape Architecture of the Warsaw University of Life Sciences, The Faculty of Graphic Arts and the Faculty of Painting of the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw in the Republic of Poland.

The inspiration for the previous nationwide editions (2008-2011), and the previous international editions (2012-2016), as well as the current international edition (2017), comes from the famous music composition „Remember the Gardens” by Jonasz Kofta (1942-1988) – an eminent Polish poet, playwright, satirist and singer, and Jan Pietrzak (1937-) – an excellent Polish composer, poet, actor, satirist, founder of the Warsaw cabaret „Hybrids” and „Under the Aegis”.

Yours faithfully,

Małgorzata Mroczkowska

The Headmistress of the Władysław Drapiewski I Private Upper Secondary Art School in Płock, Republic of Poland