

To Art Schools Headmasters/Headmistresses
from the Czech Republic, Hungary, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Poland, the Slovak Republic, Ukraine, the Republic of Bulgaria and the Republic of Latvia

Dear Sirs!

On behalf of the organizers, I cordially invite all students interested in drawing, painting, workshop graphic or computer graphic to participate in the International Biennale of Art „Remember the Gardens. But There Came...”. The competition’s aim is to present and promote artistically talented young people from art schools in Central Europe.

The International Biennale of Art „Remember the Gardens. But There Came...” is held under the patronage of: the Polish National Commission for UNESCO, the Minister of Culture and National Heritage of the Republic of Poland, the Ambassador of the Czech Republic in the Republic of Poland, the Ambassador of Hungary in the Republic of Poland, the Ambassador of the Slovak Republic in the Republic of Poland, the Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania in the Republic of Poland.

The International Biennale of Art „Remember the Gardens. But There Came...” is recommended by the Minister of Culture and National Heritage of the Republic of Poland.

The Biennale is organized by the Center of Artistic Education in Warsaw in cooperation with the Władysław Drapiewski I Private Upper Secondary Art School in Płock and the Płock Art Gallery in the Republic of Poland.

The inspiration for the previous nationwide editions (2008-2011), and the previous international editions (2012-2018), as well as the current international edition (2022), comes from the famous musical piece „Remember the Gardens” by Jan Pietrzak (1937) – an excellent Polish composer, poet, actor, satirist, founder of the Warsaw cabarets „Hybrydy” and „Pod Egidą”, composed to the text of Jonasz Kofta (1942-1988) – an eminent Polish poet, playwright, satirist and singer.

Yours faithfully

Małgorzata Mroczkowska
